DATA PROTECTION INFORMATION NOTICE

University of Malta (UM) Marketing Campaigns and Publications

Marketing campaigns, publications and exhibitions may be undertaken, issued and held by UM's Marketing, Communications & Alumni Office and/or other administrative entities for the purpose of promoting the University, its services and its benefits generally, or by UM's various academic entities, including its respective Faculties, Institutes, Centres, Schools and the University of Malta Junior College, to promote specific courses, academic activities, events or research projects, and/or for academic purposes.

In all cases, participation in any such marketing campaign/s, and inclusion of photos, videos and/or testimonials in publications or exhibitions, is on a voluntary basis. You may be asked to provide the relevant personal data (such as a photograph) yourself. Alternatively, photos and/or videos will be taken by UM's Marketing, Communications & Alumni Office, by members of staff of the Junior College in the case of campaigns related to the College, or by an external photographer/ videographer engaged for this purpose.

Photos, videos and/or testimonials are published on the basis of your consent, in accordance with the provisions of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and all other corresponding data protection legislation, including the Data Protection Act (Chapter 586, Laws of Malta) and where applicable, Article 5 (5) of Subsidiary Legislation 586.07 (Processing of Personal Data (Education Sector) Regulations).

The relevant data are shared with UM officials who are responsible for uploading them on the relevant publicity channels and/or for including them in the relevant publication. If and where required, photos and videos may be edited prior to publication. We recall that online locations are accessible worldwide. Kindly note, furthermore, that once a publication has been issued and is in circulation, it will not be possible for us to recall it.

Photos, videos and testimonials are retained by UM for a period of three (3) years. Select publications and other printed materials may be retained indefinitely, for historical purposes and for archiving purposes in the public interest.

You may withdraw your consent at any time, by sending an email on info@um.edu.mt. We remind you of your right to access your personal data held and processed by UM, of your right to request its rectification if it is inaccurate, to request its erasure, to request restriction of processing and of your right to data portability.

If you have any further queries about UM's processing of your personal data, you are invited to contact our Data Protection Officer at dpo@um.edu.mt or on +2340 3233. Should you feel aggrieved by our processing of your personal data, you may additionally lodge a complaint with the Office of the Information and Data Protection Commissioner, Malta.
